Chicago General Contractor

RHT Design & Construction is a premier custom building contractor in the Chicagoland area. With decades of experience, RHT Design & Construction is the perfect choice, whether constructing a new home or remodeling your existing residence. We specialize in creating high quality homes of timeless beauty and elegance – designed and built with care according to your tastes and specifications.

When you choose RHT Design & Construction, you're assured a pleasant experience from inception to completion. We pride ourselves on our ability to guide our clients through the process, keeping the lines of communication open 24/7 and maintaining the budget. RHT Design & Construction is also invested in conserving our natural resources, embracing the "green" movement by using environmentally sound materials and focusing on energy efficiency.

Through the years we have touched the lives of thousands of families in the Chicagoland area, building homes in Chicago, the North Shore and beyond, including Winnetka, Northbrook, Deerfield, Highland Park, Buffalo Grove, Riverwoods, Bannockburn and all points in between. We invite you to learn more about our commitment to building superior custom homes, constructing additions and renovating kitchens, bathrooms and basements. RHT Design & Construction can also handle your roofing and replacement window needs – no job is too big or too small.
